URINETOWN: THE MUSICAL

BY HOLLMANN AND GREG KOTIS, DIRECTED BY ROGER CARR

ALMOST SHOWTIME

SUBMITTED BY ROGER CARR

Well, it's not potty humor! However, we do dance, sing and act in the vicinity of a public urinal.

Urinetown is a spectacular musical that initially parodies a world in which an elite business class suppresses the poor. Revolution, romance, revenge and social upheaval predictably result but amid the comic mayhem, profound social questions arise – only to be squelched with the fun at Public Utility #9. Our cast and production team do justice to this multiple Tony Award winning show.

See you there.

SUBMITTED BY JEANNIE REYNOLDS

Ian George is a prolific visual artist from Calgary, who has lived on Vancouver Island for 15 years working as a journeyman painter/decorator. ## THE CLEAN HOUSE

A Comedy by Sarah Ruhl

Directed by Jason Viske

Audition Dates:

January 21 (Sunday) and 22 (Monday), 7-10 p.m. Callbacks will be held Wednesday, January 24, 7–10p.m.

This theatrical and wildly funny play is a quirky comedy centred on Matilde, a young Brazilian cleaning woman who hates to clean and would rather be a comedian. Matilde works for Lane, a sharp doctor who is perfectly satisfied with her structured life. Lane’s sister Virginia loves to clean and sets up her own deal with Matilde, hoping that Lane doesn’t catch on. But Lane’s attention is diverted when she discovers that her husband and co-worker, Charles, is leaving her for his patient, the older and vivacious Ana. The Clean House is a piece written in the genre of magical realism; it’s a comedy about cancer, death, and love that dares to laugh in the face of trauma and celebrates the beautiful chaos of a messy life.

The posted ages are guidelines. All actors welcome. Matilde and Ana will speak with Brazilian and Argentinian accents, respectively, which will be cultivated during rehearsals.

CHARACTERS

Lane: A doctor (early 50s). Intelligent, strong, and efficient. Drier than a Sahara martini, sharper than a bare bodkin.

Matilde: Lane’s cleaning lady (late 20s). Brazilian accent, some lines in Brazilian Portuguese. Refined sense of deadpan and a true performer.

Virginia: Lane’s sister (mid-to-late 50s). A self-conscious and sheltered housewife who flirts with the line of Obsessive-Compulsive Disorder; she finds joy in the mundane.

Ana: An impossibly charismatic woman (late 60s). Argentinian accent, some lines in very poor Brazilian Portuguese. Sensual and full of life.

Charles: Lane’s husband (50s). A compassionate surgeon. He is a childlike idealist underneath his white coat.

AUDITIONS

Audition packets with monologues and instructions are available on the Langham website. In addition, each performer must prepare and perform a joke. Bring the funny!

STATEMENT REGARDING LANGHAM COURT THEATRE’S HARASSMENT AND DISCRIMINATION POLICY

SUBMITTED BY THE BOARD OF LANGHAM COURT THEATRE

During the past year, the board and staff have been engaged in the process of reviewing all policies, including revising the Harassment and Discrimination Policy, available on the theatre’s website: www.langhamtheatre.ca/wp-content/uploads/2012/02/Langham-Court-Theatre-Harassment-and-Discrimination-Policy-.pdf.

Board and staff are committed to offering an environment free from harassment or discrimination of any kind, and consistent with the efforts occurring across the entire arts sector, are taking additional steps to ensure our theatre is a safe space for everyone. Going forward, Board and staff re-commit to looking for opportunities to ensure policies are followed and communicated clearly and concisely. For the purpose of the policy, a “member” is considered to include any individual engaged in the activities of Langham Court Theatre.

It is important for all members to feel free to discuss openly inappropriate behaviour, first with the offending person, and if that is not possible, with either the General Manager or the person supervising the activity where it occurred. If this is not possible, two ombudspersons have been appointed to receive and investigate complaints: Karrie Ayotte and Angela Henry.

If you have an issue you would like to discuss, please contact our General Manager, Michelle Buck, by email at: gm@langhamtheatre.ca or call 250-384-2142. She will assist you in deciding how to approach your individual situation.

Langham Court Theatre bears the legal responsibility for ensuring a safe and respectful workspace. It is important for us all to work together, to look out for each other, and speak up for each other. Together, we must strive to build our culture so that we can continue to create our work in a safe and respectful environment.

LANGHAM'S CHRISTMAS PARTY 2017

SUBMITTED BY PEARL ARDEN

The Christmas Party was a great success. The new team approach seemed to work well. Each area was assigned to a co-ordinator who then had others helping. That meant everyone knew what they were responsible for. Michelle Buck had many good ideas about how things could run smoothly... and they did. A big round of applause to her.

Thank you to everyone who brought the delicious appys and desserts. They were certainly a hit. Thanks also go to the following teams.

The Greeters: Sylvia Hosie, Andrea Pite, Wendy Merk, Gloria Snider and Kevin Stinson.

The Decorating Team: Jean deCartier and her team – Jean Topham, Linda MacNaughton, Vinnie Chadwick, Eileen Bennett, Sally Crickman and Pippa Catling.

The Appy Team: Pearl Arden and her crew – Eileen Bennett, Senga Simpson, Barbara Pittam and Keith Digby.

The Desserts Team: Pearl Arden, Nan Long, Monica Prendergast, Jean Topham and Colleen Maguire.

Kathy Macovichuk took photos for those who wished. I heard many positive comments about this party feature!

There may be, of course, some who helped with set up and tear down that I haven't mentioned here. I apologize if I've left you out... so many people were helpful.

Praises to Christina Haska for vigilance during the evening. She assured that things kept moving along.

Gloria Snider and Kevin Stinson co-hosted the great and funny entertainment. We laughed throughout the show. Thanks to all for coming forward to entertain us.

Our community came out to have an enjoyable evening. I think that was accomplished without anyone feeling overwhelmed by the work. Many of us were thankful that the caterers cleaned up so well after themselves. Sunday morning clean up was a breeze.

Next year? How about just appys and desserts?

REFLECTIONS FROM THE GENERAL MANAGER

SUBMITTED BY MICHELLE BUCK

At this time of year we often find ourselves glancing back over the year that was and looking ahead to a new year.

I think one of the greatest gifts of the past year, besides a lot of great theatre, has been the number of new people who have come through our doors here at 805 Langham Court. With the first two shows of the 2017/18 season, we welcomed many first-time patrons. We also had many rentals and this too resulted in different people joining us for the first time. We hope they continue to come back to Langham year after year.

Looking ahead, one big change we will introduce, alongside Urinetown: The Musical in January, is discontinuing the sale of bottled water at the concession. Please stay tuned for further information about why we believe this is an important change to implement.

Thank you to our staff here at Langham, Chris Clarke, Michael Gosselin, Christina Haska, Jason King, Colleen Maguire and Dick Newson, as well as the Board of Directors, Kevin Stinson, Wendy Merk, Andrea Pite, Andrew Lee, Michelle Mitchell, Bill Huzar, Sylvia Hosie and Lorene Cammiade.

I would also like to thank all the builders, volunteers, actors and creative teams that make Langham a great place to work. If I were to list them all, it would take the whole newsletter, so please, know you are deeply appreciated.

All the best for 2018.

Langham's set builders enjoy a seasonal lunch together.
