“Funny, fierce, romantic, undeniably engaging”

–STEPHEN HUNT, CALGARY HERALD

Fall in love all over again! Can Elizabeth overcome her pride and Darcy overcome his prejudice? Victoria’s own Janet Munsil has beautifully crafted the characters so that this beloved tale, set in Regency England, is more accessible, fresher and sparkling. As Munsil states, “Life doesn’t go the way you plan it, relationships are complicated, and love can sneak up on you.” Play of the Year 2012, Calgary. Come see this period treasure.

DIRECTED BY Naomi Simpson

“The brilliant clarity of a fairy tale and the murky depths beneath it”

– ROBERT CUSHMAN, NATIONAL POST

Grace’s new husband has only one rule; do not go into the small room at the top of the stairs. She is irresistibly drawn to the mystery behind the door and his secret life in this open-ended parable. “A miniature masterpiece ... [of] jeweled precision” – ROBERT CUSHMAN, NATIONAL POST
What lies behind the door will have you talking.

Bonus: Your ticket includes a facilitated discussion in the lounge after every show.

“Everything is subject to the values of the market”

– MICHAEL BILLINGTON, THE GUARDIAN

What happens when an aging dowager can no longer manage her aging manor house? Dorothy considers selling off her belongings or turning her lovely manor into a museum for the National Trust, but “people spoil things... and the last thing one wants is them traipsing through one’s house.” So when an offer comes to shoot a film on site, she jumps at the chance to make a little money. Unknowingly, it’s a porn flick and Bennett, in great comic style, underscores the reality that everything has a price.

FINISH THE STORY DICKENS NEVER COULD

The Mystery of Edwin Drood

BOOK, MUSIC & LYRICS BY Rupert Holmes

DIRECTED BY Roger Carr

MUSIC DIRECTION BY Donna Williams

CHOREOGRAPHY BY Sylvia Hosie

“As musical, choose-your-own-ending mystery and time travel device, Drood is jolly good fun”

– ELISABETH VINCENTELLI, THE NEW YORK POST

Return to the grand ol’ days of the music hall and be drawn into a play within a play. The unfinished final work of Charles Dickens offers a shadowy, intricate plot with a bonus: the audience votes on the ending! A brooding, sinister, brilliant music teacher obsesses over the young Rosa Bud, who is betrothed to Edwin Drood, who disappears amidst a colourful cast of characters. Who is the villain?

“No family has ever been so unhappy and to such sensationally entertaining effect, as the Westons”

– CHARLES ISHERWOOD, NEW YORK TIMES

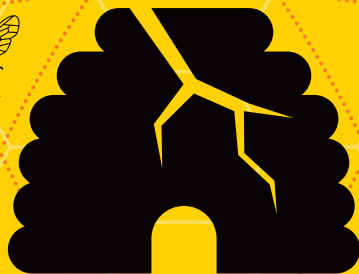

This Pulitzer Prize and Tony Award-winning play exposes a large family in a spectacularly entertaining meltdown during a hot August in Oklahoma. A missing father, an alcoholic, pill-popping matriarch, three squabbling sisters and relentless revelations of indiscretion catapult the viewer into a riveting theatre experience.

“Fiercely funny and biting sad...
a turbo-charged tragicomedy” – C. ISHERWOOD, NYT

BEES HAVE MUCH TO TELL US ABOUT FAMILY

Humble Boy

A DARK COMEDY BY
Charlotte Jones
DIRECTED BY Angela Henry

“A beautiful, intricately layered creation that simultaneously captures the head and the heart”

– IAN SHUTTLEWORTH, FINANCIAL TIMES

This poetic and clever comedy earned a Critics Circle Theatre Award. We find Felix Humble, a troubled physicist, brooding Hamlet-like over the death of his father and the much-too-quick move of his mother into the arms of a fun-loving neighbour. His solace is found in his father’s Cotswald garden and apiary where a prying spinster, a past lover, and the bees allow for musings about life and the universe.
