

No. 23

"Tomorrow" Reprise

[2]

Orch.

Vocal

FRAU KOST

The sun on the mea - dow is sum - mer - y warm,

Piano

[10]

stag in the for - est runs free. But gath - er

6

geth - er to greet the storm, To - mor - row be - longs

11

Moderate Waltz

[18]

me. The branch of the lin-den is leaf-y and green

p +Bs.

16

[26]

Rhine gives its gold to the sea. But some-where a glo

p

22

waits un-seen, To-mor-row be-longs to me.

Herr Ludwig!
Sing with me! BOTH

p (b)

[Pno A7 arp.]

28

[34]

Tpt.

p babe in his cra - dle is clos - ing his eyes. The blos - som em - brac - es the marcato

mp

[42]

bee. But soon, says a whis - per: "A - rise, a - rise, To -

[50]

f

FRAU KOST: (spoken) Everyone!

ALL

mor - row be - longs to me." Oh, Fath - er-land, Fath-er-land

Molto marcato e pesante show us the sign Your chil - dren have wait-ed to see.

52

R.H.

[58]

morn - ing will come when the world is mine, to - mor - row

58

Molto Pesante

longs to me! Oh Fa - ther-land, Fa - ther - la rit.

63

rit.

show us the sign your chil - dren have wait - ed to see.

[74]

The morn - ing will come when the world is mine, to - mor - row be - longs to me!

rit. Drs.