Welcome to SEASON EIGHTY-SEVEN

FROM Lorene Cammiade & Wendy Merk
2015/16 SEASON CO-PRODUCTION CHAIRS

Since 1929 we have been producing live community theatre in one of Victoria's most artistic neighbourhoods. The instant you walk through our doors you can feel the vibrant history that makes Langham so special. We know you will enjoy this season's selections spanning four centuries of authorship: from a bawdy comedy written in the 1700s to a 21st Century multiple award-winning drama. Please join us in applauding our directors, actors, stage managers, producers, designers, builders, backstage and front-of-house workers, who volunteer thousands of hours every year – they are the essence of this unique jewel in the City of Victoria's crown.

*sheer joy... an escapist tonic...
this giddy romp is a perennial favorite*

— DAVID ROONEY, THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER

Zany! Bizarre! A laugh from start to finish! Begin your Fall Season at Langham Court with the somewhat "batty" families of Vanderhof, Sycamore, and Carmichael, as they skewer the status quo in this winner of the 1937 Pulitzer Prize for Drama. Let the fireworks begin! Fun for the whole family!

DOUBT, A PARABLE

A DRAMA BY JOHN PATRICK SHANLEY DIRECTED BY DON KEITH

a gripping mystery, tightly written

— TIME OUT NY

A tightly woven mystery, this Pulitzer Prize and Tony Award winning play is an eloquent, provocative investigation of elusive truth and terrible consequence – compelling and thought provoking theatre. “You may come out of my play uncertain. You may want to be sure. Look down on that feeling.” – JOHN PATRICK SHANLEY, PLAYWRIGHT.

ALSO WINNER OF:

2005 DRAMA DESK AWARD for BEST NEW PLAY
LUCILLE LORTEL AWARD for OUTSTANDING PLAY
NEW YORK DRAMA CRITICS’ CIRCLE BEST PLAY

it entertains... hilarious, touching and incredibly camp

— AMIE WEE, EXPRESS MAGAZINE

Set in a dingy church hall in early 1980s North London, Stepping Out is a warm and funny comedy about the lives, laughs and loves of a group of women (and one man) attending a weekly tap dance class. Despite treating the classes as social occasions and showing little co-ordination, the students slowly develop a level of skill and cohesion, and by the end transform into triumphant tappers.

WINNER OF 1984 EVENING STANDARD
AWARD FOR BEST COMEDY

A HISTORICAL DRAMA BY STEVE GOOCH

DIRECTED BY MONTGOMERY BJÖRNSON

a tough, realistic and detailed account of the hardships endured by six female convicts transported to Australia in the early 1800s

— MICHAEL BILLINGTON, THE GUARDIAN

Sexism, classicism, altruism, oppression, and repression punctuate this story of survival and solidarity as six women convicted of petty crimes endure a six-month voyage from 19th Century England to a penal colony in what we now know as Australia. A story of the human spirit and endurance, these women must overcome their personal prejudices and band together to survive both the journey and the fate that awaits them.

“another gem... unabashed, fiery passion that simultaneously commands respect and elicits sympathy”

– BLOG TORONTO

This very funny dark comedy, set in working class Toronto, tells the story of Nora, the matriarch of an eccentric, wacky family. Her daughter Mary Ann is a crazy runaway mother, her son-in-law Junior is a beat-up car thief, and her daughter Elizabeth is a hot-tempered bisexual. Nora maintains a cock-eyed optimism with a cup of tea and a firm grasp on fantasy, as the family deals with cops, drug dealers, and thugs in the basement.

SHE STOOPS TO CONQUER

A COMEDY BY OLIVER GOLDSMITH

DIRECTED BY TOSHIK BUKOWIECKI

*the perfect production... blissfully funny...
affection, good humour and romance prevail*

– CHARLES SPENCER, THE TELEGRAPH

Radiating charm and bursting with humour, Oliver Goldsmith's much-loved comedy of deception and seduction has been enthralling audiences for over two centuries.

Does this social satire of Restoration Era values, classes and clever women still speak to us today? You bet your pretentious friends and neighbours it does!
