Socialite and novelist Charles invites the eccentric medium, Madame Arcati, to his house as literary research. But when the séance backfires, Charles' marriage is suddenly in jeopardy, as he is haunted by the temperamental ghost of his first wife. While Charles aims to get rid of the ghost, she is hard at work trying to get rid of his new wife! Laughter meets the supernatural in this magical comedy of manners.

Give me a smile I can keep all the while in my heart while I'm away.

Set during the dangerous build up to World War II, young William Beech is evacuated to the idyllic English countryside and forges a remarkable and heart warming friendship with the elderly recluse, Tom Oakley. All is perfect until William is suddenly summoned by his mother back to war-torn London. Winner of the 2013 Laurence Olivier Award for Best Entertainment, this wonderfully uplifting tale inspires audiences and brings generations together.

EARLY BIRD BEFORE MON, DEC 10
 DISCOUNT NIGHTS PAGE 10

A clever, charming, and sweet-natured musical comedy about six quirky tweens competing in the spelling bee of a lifetime. While candidly disclosing hilarious and touching stories from their home lives, they spell their way through a series of (potentially made-up) words, hoping never to hear the soul-crushing ding of the bell that signals a mistake. In the end, the youth learn that winning isn't everything, and that losing doesn't necessarily make you a loser.

THAT ELUSIVE SPARK

A COMEDY BY JANET MUNSIL

DIRECTED BY
MERCEDES BÁTIZ-BENÉT

 GOVERNOR GENERAL'S DRAMA AWARD FINALIST

It is a serious matter for a man to be acquainted with himself.

Phineas Gage was a construction foreman who miraculously survived an iron rod piercing his brain in 1848 (true story). Present-day neuropsychologist Helen Harlow, a direct descendant of the doctor who treated Phineas' injury, expertly understands the human brain, yet her own remains a mystery. Their stories entwine, showing how far we have advanced scientifically, and yet how little we still comprehend of how our own minds work.

“What harm is there in pretending to recapture what we once were?”

A charming, funny and poignant tale of four ageing opera singers. Cecily, Reggie and Wilfred reside in a magnificent retirement home for musicians. The rumour circling the halls is that the home is soon to play host to a new resident, a star. Jean arrives and old rivalries resurface, secrets are revealed and chaos unfolds, but in true theatrical tradition... the show must go on! A celebration of the sunset years and the hilarity of growing old disgracefully.

 MULTIPLE TONY AWARD
NOMINATIONS

*It's not midnight yet.
We don't open till tomorrow.*

The Opening Night performance of the farce Nothing On is just hours away and, as the manic menagerie of a cast stumbles through their final dress rehearsal, things couldn't be going any worse. With lines forgotten, love triangles unraveling and sardines flying everywhere, it's complete pandemonium... and we haven't even reached intermission! Can the cast pull their act together on the stage even if they can't behind the scenes?
