the final scene play out for the first time. I remember watching with my hands gripping the armrests on my seat, knuckles white, on the edge of my seat. I was also grinning like an idiot. It was the first time it really set in how lucky I was to be a part of this production. I was so incredibly tense watching a story unravel that I already knew, and I

ROPE

DIRECTED BY ALAN PENTY

AN ACTOR'S PERSPECTIVE

SUBMITTED BY ALEX HUXTER

I remember sitting in the rehearsal room, watching was delighted and so incredibly proud to be a part of it.

That feeling hasn't gone away since moving to the stage; just last week I teared up watching the end, despite having already seen it 10 times. I am constantly caught in moments of intense gratitude that I get to be apart of something for which I have so much pride.

Lois likes to find art in all aspects of life. Mostly self-taught, she has experimented in graphite, charcoal, pastel, watercolour, oils, and appreciates the opportunity to exhibit her works from travel adventures in the UK, Kauai and Sicily.

Born in Victoria, Lois often pursues realism in her pieces drawing inspiration from people, places, animals and nature.

COMPANY

MUSIC AND LYRICS BY STEPHEN SONDHEIM

BOOK BY GEORGE FURTH

STAGE AND MUSICAL DIRECTION BY

HEATHER JARVIE

CHOREOGRAPHY BY GEOFF MALCOM

REHEARSALS HAVE BEGUN

SUBMITTED BY HEATHER JARVIE

Here we are 50 years after Company premiered on Broadway, still fascinated with this wonderful non-linear musical and enamoured with a fella named Bobby.

The music, in typical Sondheim fashion, is challenging and memorable, complicated and beautiful. But the lyrics and story are dated. And while we don't have the opportunity to make edits or changes to what's written, with the unbelievable team of actors and artists committed to the show, we will be looking to find the moments to soften some of those hard edges, to find the humanity in these characters, and to dig deep into what it means to be single and happy, in a relationship and lonely, and all the variations in between.

There is one addition to our cast list; Thomas Miller will play Paul.

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

SUBMITTED BY KEVIN STINSON

Langham Court Theatre Society's Annual General Meeting will be on Sunday, November 24 at 7 p.m. in the theatre.

The following 2-year term positions are up for election:

- Treasurer
- Secretary
- Member-at-large
- Member-at-large

The Board encourages the membership to give thought to the representation that is needed on the board. Langham has grown a long way from the original club of members. This is not surprising in an organization of 90+ years, with a proud history, and considerable financial assets. In order to continue to prosper, the Board is specifically looking to recruit members with specific experience, networks and skillsets including:

- Finance and accounting
- Human Resources
- Legal, including familiarity with the B.C. Societies Act
- Marketing and promotions
- Fundraising and capital campaigns
- Long-term and strategic planning

The Board also encourages you to look among your own networks for possible Board members. Are there Langham patrons or supporters you know that possess these skills who might be a strong addition of new perspectives to the Board?

NOMINATIONS

Nominations for Board positions will be accepted at the meeting, or can be sent in to the Chair in advance.

We invite anyone wanting to learn more to speak with Nominations Chair, Kevin Stinson at kevin@macgeek4hire.com.
